

The Paperback Reutter

CHRISTMAS 2012

This has been an exciting and fun year. We were blessed to see many of you while we were in the USA this summer for Nate's brother's wedding in DC and my sister's wedding in Michigan.

This upcoming year has several exciting things in store for us. First of all, PAZ is expanding internationally and we have been asked to participate in a survey trip to Japan with the possibility of moving there in 2014 to help church planting. Our schedule now is to spend 2 weeks there in February to really see if that is where God could be leading us. We would greatly appreciate your prayers not only for us, but for our leadership as we seek God's perfect direction.

Secondly, we will be expanding our family by two feet in July! We are very excited about baby Reutter and the girls will get to put all their "mothering" skills to work. The girls turned 3 in November and now claim that they are "big girls". We are in serious potty training mode, but they have been doing exceptionally well.

Nate has been very busy with the church and the mission. The church launched their 2nd worship CD in October, which was very exciting. Then, in November, Nate was asked to lead the worship ministries in Santarém. It has been a great honor, but also involves quite a bit more work, but he is doing a great job! With PAZ, he continues to work with church-planting teams on the rivers as well as producing the website, videos and all sorts of other promotional materials.

The kids and I stay busy at home. They are growing up so fast and are at such a fun phase right now. They are constantly making me food or building houses with the patio furniture. They take turns being the baby and making the other sister be the mommy. This involves getting a blanket, covering up the baby and getting her a stuffed animal to help her stop crying. I think we are all set for baby number 3! I'll just sit back and enjoy the ride!

Our cell groups continue to grow and have people mature in the Lord. We are currently discipling 3 of our cell group leaders, who in turn are discipling the other 4 cell group leaders. We have one group in our house on Saturdays and we are believing that soon we will be able to hand that over to one of the members and continue to visit and supervise our cell groups.

We love and appreciate you and all your support. May God richly bless you this Christmas season!

Ruth, for Nate and the Girls (and baby Reutter)
